

Are there any Problem or Foreclosed Properties on Your Block?

At the WHO Economic Development committee Tuesday, October 23, we met with Elizabeth Ryan, City Housing Policy and Development Director.

Ms. Ryan was asked to describe the City's proposals for dealing with foreclosure preventions and the number of foreclosed properties in north Minneapolis, and particularly to help us understand what we're up against.

Minutes of the meeting are posted online: www.willard-homewood.org/blog/archives/272 .

Following her presentation, she suggested that our Committee solicit information from Block Club Leaders and residents about problem properties on their own block. From this list, we will focus on 10 to 20 properties to send to GMHC and the City of Minneapolis as our priority properties, asking to be included in programs at the City already in place to deal with this issue.

If you have one or more problem properties on your block, one that has been abandoned, one that is in foreclosure, one that is boarded and vacant, please send that address to our committee by November 6. (beverlyroberts@att.net).

Questions: 612-588-3723

---

Are there any Problem or Foreclosed Properties on Your Block?

At the WHO Economic Development committee Tuesday, October 23, we met with Elizabeth Ryan, City Housing Policy and Development Director.

Ms. Ryan was asked to describe the City's proposals for dealing with foreclosure preventions and the number of foreclosed properties in north Minneapolis, and particularly to help us understand what we're up against.

Minutes of the meeting are posted online: www.willard-homewood.org/blog/archives/272 .

Following her presentation, she suggested that our Committee solicit information from Block Club Leaders and residents about problem properties on their own block. From this list, we will focus on 10 to 20 properties to send to GMHC and the City of Minneapolis as our priority properties, asking to be included in programs at the City already in place to deal with this issue.

If you have one or more problem properties on your block, one that has been abandoned, one that is in foreclosure, one that is boarded and vacant, please send that address to our committee by November 6. (beverlyroberts@att.net).

Questions: 612-588-3723

